Historical Background:

Joseph L. Ryan was born on December 4, 1920 in Brighton, MA, the son of John R. Ryan and Mary Ann (Connelly) Ryan. He was educated at Boston Latin School and Boston College High School, graduating in 1938. He entered into the Society of Jesus on June 30, 1938 at Shadowbrook. Both his novitiate and juniorate training were at Shadowbrook, 1938 to 1942, then he studied Philosophy at Weston College from 1942 to 1945. In 1945, he went to Baghdad College, Baghdad, Iraq, for his regency, teaching English, Mathematics and Chemistry. He left Baghdad in 1948 to begin his Theological studies at Weston College and continued until 1952. He was ordained at Weston College on June 16, 1951 by Bishop John J. McEleney, S.J. In 1952, he went to St. Robert's Hall, Pomfret, CT for his tertianship studies and in 1953 he began a year of study in Chemistry at Boston College. On December 28, 1954, he returned to Baghdad College to teach Chemistry. In 1956, he became the dean of the new Al-Hikma University, Baghdad, Iraq, and a Professor of Theology. He remained at Al-Hikma until 1962, when he left for the St. Joseph's Residence in Baghdad to study the Arabic language. After his year of study, he returned to Al-Hikma University as the dean until 1966 when he was made academic vice-president. When the Jesuits were expelled from Al-Hikma University in 1968, he returned to New England where he became a research fellow at the Cambridge (Mass.) Center for Social Studies, and to serve as Director of Planning for Jesuit Missions for the Province.

In 1971, he returned to the Mid-East, at St. Joseph University, Beirut, Lebanon, where he did research at the Center for the Study of the Modern Arabic World (CEMAM) until 1975. In 1976 he returned to the United States where he continued these studies at Loyola House in Boston. From 1972 to 1977, he undertook a series of lecture tours on topics related to the Middle East. He took his Final Solemn Vows on April 12, 1977. Also in 1977, he became rector for the Jesuit community at the College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, MA. In 1983, he spent a year at Oxford University, England, studying religious education. He then began work with the Amman, Jordan religious education ministry and became director for the Pontifical Mission for Palestine. He remained with the program until 1990, when he took a one year sabbatical and returned to the Loyola House for private study, and later Weston, to continue his education. He then spent a year, 1991-1992, at the Center for Religious Development in Cambridge, MA. From 1992 until 1997 he worked in spiritual counseling and direction for retreats at Fairfield University. In 1997, his failing health forced him leave his position. He died on January 31, 1998 and is buried at Campion Center in Weston, MA.

Fr. Ryan was member of the National Council of Americans for Middle East Understanding, the Middle East Studies Association, and President of the American Friends of the Middle East. He was the author of many articles and book chapters on Middle Eastern affairs and, in particular, on Palestinian-Israeli issues and problems. He testified on conditions in the Middle East, including anti-Zionism and anti-Semitism, before U.S. Congressional committees, and delivered a paper on the Rights of the Palestinian People at the United Nations.

Scope and Content:

Fr. Ryan's collection consists of papers and photographs. The bulk of the papers are from the 1970s and documents Fr. Ryan's work presenting the state of affairs in the Middle East, especially the Palestinian and Arab position to American and others. The photographs include family photos and pictures of ceremonies at Al-Hikma University.

The papers are arranged into series as follows: Biographical/Personal Materials, Correspondence, Writings, Tours, and Subject Files. Each series is arranged chronologically, with the exception of the Subject Files which are arranged alphabetically. Please be aware that there is correspondence included within almost all of the series. Fr. Ryan treated all of his files as subject files including related correspondence and clippings in the folders. This material was left in place to maintain the relationship between materials.

The Correspondence Series contains a sub-series of letters that led to an exchange of newspaper articles between Fr. Edward H. Flannery of the Secretariat for Catholic-Jewish Relations, Fr. Ryan, and others about the State of Israel and anti-Semitism. This correspondence includes letters with many other members of the Roman Catholic hierarchy. Many of these letters are also reproduced in the unpublished book titled "Arab-Israeli Conflict and Relations between Muslims, Jews and Christians."

The Writings series is further divided into Unpublished Books, Talks and Articles about the Arab-Israeli Conflict and the Middle East, and Religious Talks. There are three unpublished books written between 1969 and 1976: 1) a typescript of "Arab-Israeli Conflict and Relations Between Muslims, Jews and Christians," 2) a pasted-up typescript of "The Arab-Israel Conflict: Its Repercussions on Jewish-Christian Relations," and 3) a typescript draft that was circulated for comments of "Chapters of Book on Arab-Israeli Conflict and Jewish-Christian Relations." There are Talks and Articles about the Arab-Israeli Conflict and the Middle East, and Religious Talks. For identification and description purposes the box/folder listing includes both the Folder Title and the Title of the Talk or Article included. Topics include Palestinians, Jerusalem, Jewish-Christian relations, Muslims, Vatican II. The Religious Talks consist of a number of sermons from 1963-64 when Fr. Ryan was the Dean of Al-Hikma University in Baghdad, Iraq. Several of these sermons have been translated into Arabic. (Originally all of these sermons were stored in one folder. The paper clips fastening the English and Arabic versions were rusted. Each sermon and the corresponding Arabic translation were placed in separate folders for preservation purposes. In 2008, Fr. Charles Crowley of the New England Province, also a member of the Iraq Mission, offered to translate Arabic documents in the collection. His translations show that all of this material was not arranged correctly when it was acquired by the archives. Fr. Crowley's translations have been added to the folders.) Another folder of Religious Talks, 1976-83, is mostly from the time Fr. Ryan was the Rector at the College of the Holy Cross.

The Tours series documents seven lecture tours in the United States that Fr. Ryan undertook between 1972 and 1977. There were two tours in 1972 and one tour in each of the following years. Many of the talks were given during these tours. The folders include correspondence, publicity materials, newspaper clippings, itineraries, and Fr. Ryan's reports with analysis of the tours.

Archives of the New England Province Society of Jesus

The Subject Files, unlike the other series, are arranged alphabetically. Several of these folders contain exclusively newspaper clippings and press releases. Several of the subject files dating from 1969-1971 are related to the projects Fr. Ryan worked on while a research fellow at the Cambridge Center for Social Studies, (CCSC) in Cambridge, MA. One of these projects was a proposal to study the office of the Mission Secretariat of the Jesuit Curia in Rome. There are also three folders of material titled "The Jordan Project" about Fr. Ryan's work in Amman, Jordan, for the Pontifical Mission for Palestine. (Also see the transcript of an oral history interview in the Biographical/Personal Materials Series for a description of this work.)

Processing Notes:

Fr. Ryan treated all of his files as subject files. Often the Writings, Tours and Subject Files Series folders also contained related correspondence and clippings which were left in place to maintain the relationship between materials. Correspondence was moved to the front of the folder. There was a great deal of duplicate material in the folders. Although an effort was made to weed out duplicate material, some duplicates may remain.

Access / Restrictions:

This collection is open to researchers with the exception of a few folders marked as restricted.
