New England Jesuit Archives Series Description

Record Group:	11.1 Missions Offices Records
Series Name:	New England Jesuit Foreign Missions (NEJFM) – Jamaica Mission / Region
Dates of Collection:	1860-2014
Size of Collection:	8 linear feet, 13-5” boxes + 6-2.5” boxes = 19 boxes

Historical Background:

The English Province of the Society of Jesus was in charge of missionary work in Jamaica and supplying missionaries to Jamaica from 1837 until 1893. In 1893, Rome entrusted the Jamaican mission to the American Province of Maryland-New York after the English Provincial wrote to Rome requesting the change. Rome had just assigned the English Province the Zambezi, Africa mission and the English Provincial thought that supplying two foreign mission sites stretched the resources of the English Province.

In 1895, the Maryland-New York Province requested a clear distinction between the property owned by the Vicariate of Jamaica and that owned by the Society of Jesus. The long-time Bishop, Charles Gordon, determined the conflict was serious enough that he appealed directly to the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda by writing to Cardinal Ledochowski.

In 1906, John J. Collins, S.J. became the Administrator Apostolic upon the retirement of Bishop Gordon. On January 14, 1907, an earthquake hit Jamaica ruining much of the city of Kingston and killing over 1,000 inhabitants. The earthquake toppled the Holy Trinity Cathedral, the main Catholic worship site on the island, where 20,000 Catholics worshipped. On October 13, 1907, Fr. Collins was appointed Vicar Apostolic and two weeks later was consecrated as Bishop. Bishop Collins made building a priority and the newly erected Holy Trinity Cathedral was completed in 1910. From 1908 until 1919, Bishop Collins erected nineteen places of worship throughout the island.

In 1919, William F. O’Hare, S.J. became Vicar Apostolic of Jamaica. The mission was near bankruptcy when he assumed office and within nine months, Bishop O’Hare had reduced the debt to half the original amount. In 1926, the New England Region separated from the Maryland-New York Province to form an independent Province. The Philippines were assigned to the Maryland-New York Province and Jamaica was assigned to the newly formed New England Province, although the New England Province did not assume administration duties of Jamaica until 1929.

In 1927, Joseph N. Dinand, S.J. was named Vicar Apostolic of Jamaica, leaving his post as President of the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, MA to assume his new duties. Bishop Dinand was the first Vicar Apostolic from the newly created New England Province. In 1929, Bishop Dinand had to resign his post due to ill health, however, he had begun work with Sister Humiliana of the Franciscans to set up a native religious congregation of sisters on the island. The Franciscan Missionary Sisters of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, the native Sisterhood group’s new institution, was founded and began its ministry in 1929.

Also in 1929, the New England Province fully assumed the duties of administering the Jamaican mission. In 1930, Thomas A. Emmet, S.J. was named Vicar Apostolic. In 1950, John J. McEleney, S.J. became Vicar Apostolic, then in 1956, he became the Bishop of Kingston, and in 1967, he was named Archbishop of Kingston-in-Jamaica. Samuel Carter, S.J. served as Auxiliary Bishop of Kingston-in-Jamaica from 1966 until 1970 when he became Archbishop of Kingston-in-Jamaica and served as such until 1996. Lawrence A. Burke, S.J. was appointed the 4th Archbishop of Kingston, Jamaica in 2004 and served until his retirement in 2008.

In 1962, Jamaica became independent from Great Britain (United Kingdom), ending its 300 year colonization.

In 1973 the office of Mission Director was divided into Director of New England Jesuit Missions and Director of International Ministries / Apostolates. Part of the Director of International Ministries responsibilities included working with the men in the missions and therefore, records from the men who held these positions are included in the Jamaica sub-series.

In 1980, the status of the Jamaica Mission was changed to that of a Dependent Region by Father General Pedro Arrupe, S.J.

Francis J. Kelly, S.J. served as Superior from 1925 until 1931 when Charles F. Arnold became Superior, serving until 1934. Francis J. Kelly, S.J. again served as Superior from 1935 until 1939 when Thomas J. Feeney, S.J. assumed the office. In 1945, Walter J. Ballou served as Superior and in 1952, Dennis T. Tobin, S.J. became Superior. In 1958, James H. Barry, S.J. served in the position and in 1964, William A. Connelly, S.J. became Superior. In 1970, Robert J. Carr, S.J. assumed the office and in 1973, Lawrence A. Burke, S.J. served as Superior. In 1979, Kenneth J. Hughes, S.J. was Superior and in 1986, John J. Bresnahan, S.J. served. In 1991, Thomas H. Schneider, S.J. became Superior and in 1997, James F. Webb, S.J. of the Upper (English) Canada Province assumed the office. He was succeeded by Peter J. McIsaac, S.J. of the Upper (English) Canada Province in 2006 who served until 2012 when Christopher G. Llanos of the English Canada Province became Superior.

On November 23, 2014, the Dependent Region of Jamaica was suppressed by decree of Father General Adolfo Nicolas and its members and works became an independent community of the New England Province.

On December 3, 2014, the New England and New York Province united to form the Northeast Province.

Scope and Content:

The bulk of the collection dates from the administration of the island by the New England Province and includes histories, correspondence, financial material, brochures, publications, visitation reports, and photographs. This material is divided into the following subject categories: Bishops' correspondence, installations and general information, Contracts related to works in Jamaica, Financial information specific to the Jamaica Mission, papers and reports on the History of the mission which contain photocopies of documents regarding Jamaica pre-dating the New England Province's responsibility for the island. It also contains some original documents from the early 1900s when the Maryland-New York Province administered the Jamaican mission. Also included in this series are Province Planning and Summer Programs files that contain much descriptive information. Correspondence and documents related to places and works in Jamaica and Mission Superior's Correspondence with the Boston Mission Office are also included. The Visitation Reports are restricted.
