

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

JESUITS AND AMERICAN CULTURE

We are pleased to announce the fifth annual Jesuit Student Research Symposium, to be held on Friday, April 26, 2019 at the Jesuit Archives & Research Center, 3920 West Pine Boulevard, St. Louis, MO 63108, 314-376-2440.

The symposium will be hosted jointly by the Jesuit Archives & Research Center, the Office of Mission and Identity, and the Saint Louis University History Department. Our theme will explore the history of Jesuit engagement with, and influence on, American culture.

Undergraduate and graduate students from all disciplines and universities are warmly invited to submit a proposal for a 20-minute presentation. Submissions may include papers and other appropriate presentations on the theme of Jesuits and American culture. Presentations can address any time period or discipline, including but not limited to history, music, theater, science, higher education, and exploration. For further advice and sources, please contact jarcadmin@jesuits.org.

Proposals should be no more than 250 words, and will be accepted by the selection committee on a rolling basis. All proposals will be acknowledged by a response within two weeks of submission. The final deadline for submissions is Friday, March 1, 2019.

If you have any questions, please contact Mr. Jacob Klusman, Jesuit Archives & Research Center, at jarcadmin@jesuits.org, or Dr. Silvana Siddali, SLU History Department, at silvana.siddali@slu.edu.

Eligibility: All undergraduate and graduate students, at SLU or any other university, college, or seminary, are warmly invited to apply.

Important dates:

Friday, March 1, 2019: Final deadline for proposals.

Friday, April 19, 2019: Final papers are due to the committee.
