Historical Note

The Birmingham collection documents the Holy Family Cristo Rey High School which maintained the endorsement of the New Orleans Province and is sponsored by the Congregation of the Passion (Passionists). The school was founded as Holy Family Catholic High School by the Passionist Fathers in 1943. In 2007 the school was accepted into the Cristo Rey Catholic high school network and in 2009 was admitted to the Jesuit Secondary Education Association (JSEA). Prior to this, the school received several grants from the New Orleans Province.¹
