Preferred Citation

[Identification of item], [Box Number], [Folder number/title]. ORE RG 1.30. Jesuit Archives and Research Center, St. Louis, Missouri. [Date Accessed].

Scope and Contents

This collection is comprised of records related to the Jesuits' work and day-to-day life in Kotzebue, Alaska. The bulk of the material dates to the 20th century.

Historical Note

Full note TK

Please note that items in this collection do use "Eskimo," an outdated and offensive term for the Inuit people of the Arctic region. In finding aids for previously processed collections, JARC maintains the word choices used by materials' creators to contextualize those materials but recognizes that decision can still cause hurt to the communities affected by that language. In all modern documentation (newly processed collections, exhibits, communications, et cetera), JARC makes every effort to use the language preferred by the communities being described. If your community, tribe, or nation is being improperly named, we deeply apologize and ask you to please reach out to JARC. We thank you for your time and assistance.

Processing Information

This collection was arranged and processed in the Jesuits of the Oregon Province Archives at Gonzaga University. Box and folder numbers were added at the Jesuit Archives & Research Center in February 2020 by Maddie McDermott.

Arrangement Note

All Oregon Province Location collections follow a standard sub-series organization. The numbers assigned to each sub-series will vary based on the collection. A full listing of potential sub-series is available on the Jesuit Archives' webpage for Oregon's Record Group 1 and/or by contacting JARC's reference archivist.

Conditions Regarding Access

Access to this material in this collection may be restricted based on its date and office of origin, in accordance with the Jesuit Archives & Research Center's access policy. Likely access restrictions for this location include, but are not limited to: correspondence of an assistant, delegate, major superior, socius, president, provincial, or treasurer (open fifty years after their death); documents of an apostolic work or Jesuit community (open fifty years after their printing, date of issuance, or date of meeting).

Conditions Regarding Use

The archival records in the Jesuit Archives & Research Center are the property of the Central and Southern, Midwest, East, and West Provinces of the Society of Jesus, the Jesuit Conference of the United States and Canada, and all respective predecessors. Copies may not be duplicated or deposited elsewhere without the prior written consent of the archivist.

The Jesuit Archives and Research Center does not own copyright to all records in its collections. Supplying a copy is not an authorization to publish or circulate. Written permission to publish any records in their entirety or a substantial portion thereof must be requested and approved prior to publication. The researcher has the sole legal responsibility for identifying legal copyright holders and obtaining this written permission.
