Scope and Contents

This collection is comprised of school publications, correspondence, ministers' diaries, house diaries, visitation reports, financial records, and meeting minutes. The bulk of the material dates between the 1940s and the 2010s.

The first item of the series constitutes an independent series for Coulee Croche (Cankton, LA) (NOR 3.08A), the single-item series is housed in NOR 3.09 in consideration of space.

The Montserrat Retreat Center in Dallas is not mentioned at the folder level in this series, although it may be included in another series of the New Orleans Locations of Ministries, NOR 3.

Historical Note

The predominant Jesuit presence in Dallas has been the Jesuit College Prep High School. In 1942, Jesuits from the New Orleans Province established Jesuit High School in Dallas as the first all-boys Catholic high school in the area. Initially, the school occupied the former Holy Trinity College building, constructed in 1906, but relocated in 1963 to a newly built campus in North Dallas. In 1969, the school was renamed Jesuit College Preparatory School but is interchangeably referred to as Jesuit College Prep, Jesuit Dallas, and Jesuit High School.¹

The Jesuit Seminary Guild in Dallas was established in 1960 to financially and spiritually support Jesuit seminarians and vocations in the area, the guild was often associated with the Jesuit Seminary Fund.²

St. Rita Church, named for Saint Rita of Cascia, was opened by the Jesuits in 1961 next door to Jesuit College Prep.³ The parish and school were transferred to the Diocese of Dallas in 2003.
